Bangalore, India (21 April 2022)- Novus International's Asia leadership team in India inaugurated its new corporate office in the country in April.

The new space was officially opened on 21 April 2022 in Bangalore, the capital and largest city of the Indian state of Karnataka located in the country's south western region. Having a corporate office in Bangalore has the advantage of being in proximity to many customers. While a large city that is home to more than 8 million people, Bangalore is centrally located with major livestock and poultry hubs like Coimbatore, Namakkal, Hospet, Hyderabad, Pune, etc., contributing more than 60 percent of the poultry and dairy markets. The location also facilitates frequent engagement with customers, which will result in enhanced customer intimacy, improved services, and business growth.

On the 20th of April, Novus South Asia team hosted the customer meet-and-greet featuring Sr. Director of Global Strategy Marketing Abhishek Shingote and Vice President and Asia Managing Director Dr. Vaibhav Nagpal from Novus Head-quarters in the U.S. The evening started with the welcome address by Neeraj Kumar Srivastava, managing

Dr. Nagpal mentioned the evolution of Novus in India over the last 15 years and spoke to the global development, innovation and focus of the company. He also added the importance of customers and business partners for the growth of any organization.

Nagpal Vaibhav

"Customers are the backbone of any business," Dr. Nagpal said.

Many prominent animal nutrition and health companies are located in and are operating out of Bangalore. The area is also a hub for the software and biotechnology-related industry in India and is known as the "Silicon Valley & Biotech Capital of India." Recently, Bangalore has emerged as the start-up capital with almost 32 entrepreneurial companies located there. With this investment in the city, Bangalore has an advantage over other cities in attracting and retaining talents.

Bangalore is also demographically diverse and the second fastest-growing major metropolis in India as per the Centre for Science and Environment. Bangalore is called the most livable city in India due to its economic ability and opportunities.
